At the outset the wheat market experienced a setback because of lower cables. Ilheral receipts and a continuation of good weather in the Northwest. September opened $25c to $30c lower at 85% to 894c. A lot of long wheat came out during the first few minutes of trading and prices declined still further. September selling off to $55,4085c. On the break there was good buying by commission houses, resulting in a net advance of about $2c. The demand was influenced to some extent by the builtsh foreign crop news and by many complaints of rust from the American spring wheat country. Another reaction occurred on heavy selling of July resulting from the announcement of estimated liberal receipts for tomorrow. Speculative trading also was affected by the weaknes sin the cash market here, all grades of cash wheat except contract grain which can be delivered in July being down 2 to 4 conts. Late in he day the market for distant deliveres became firmer on a report of the coallition of the German crop showing considerable deterioration as a result of severe drought. ## MELONS COMING IN FROM CALIFORNIA

Egg Plants and a New Variety of Cucumbers Make Their Appearance in Stalls.

The first car of California watermelons arrived in the city yesterday and sold at $3 to $5 a dozen. A few Utah watermelons and some cantaloupes are in the market, but it will be two weeks or more before the native meions will displace the imported article. The Texas watermelons, which have been the only ones so far re-celved, will now be cut out altogether. Utah apples are replacing the California fruit and are arriving in larger quantities every day. The first consignment of egg plants came in yesterday from the country after being completely out of the market for several weaks.

A vegetable novelty which attracted some attention on Market row yesterday is the Klondige cucumber, a variety as amooth as a watermelon and as darkly given. It is raised north of the city and is remarkably free from seeds.

In the fish market black bass are reported scarce and hard to get. Meat prices remain steady, despite the troubles of the packing companies in the East.
